ABOUT 67 BLANKETS FOR NELSON MANDELA DAY

In December 2013, Zelda la Grange, Nelson Mandela's trusted assistant, presented philanthropist and 'Arts Angel', Carolyn Steyn, our Founder, with a challenge: knit, sew or crochet 67 blankets! These blankets would then be distributed to those in need on Nelson Mandela Day (18 July 2014).

Carolyn gladly accepted Zelda's challenge but soon realised that she wouldn't be able to achieve it alone.

She called on her friends for help and developed a Facebook Group and Page. Her friends shared the Page with their friends, who shared the Page with theirs, and in just a few weeks, hundreds of people from around the world had pledged to knit a blanket for Nelson Mandela Day.

Since then, 67 Blankets for Nelson Mandela Day has transformed into what some are calling a movement – a movement that has captured the attention of many South African celebrities as well as corporates and people who want to make a difference in Australia, Canada, Germany, Cyprus, London, the US, India and The Netherlands, Belgium and Norway, with more countries eager to come on board.

You are invited to join this incredible initiative as an Ambassador! Stitch by stitch we will be keeping thousands of people around the world warm this winter (and all the winters to come), in the name of our beloved Nelson Mandela. His legacy lives on in each blanket we produce with our own two hands.

As an Ambassador for this initiative you will be expected to adhere to certain principles which are outlined below.

AMBASSADOR ROLE DESCRIPTION

OVERALL PURPOSE OF AN AMBASSADOR

OPERATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

DONATIONS

COLLECTION OF BLANKETS

In order for 67 Blankets for Nelson Mandela Day to be able to track the blankets from collection to distribution, it is essential that records are kept in the following manner:

1. The Ambassador responsible for the collection of blankets at the designated drop-off points must ensure that each blanket is accompanied by a “Blanket Handover Form” (See Annexure A). The form is saved on Facebook as a File.
2. Each drop off point will be provided with a Tagging Kit. This comprises a numbered tag with a hole punched in it:

1. The kit also contains cable ties and safety pins. The cable ties must be used to attach the tag to the knitted or crocheted blankets and the safety pin for cloth items such as quilts.
2. The details as noted on the Blanket Handover Form must be captured into the database using the AdvanceMobility application which has been developed for this purpose. A photograph of the blanket with the tag number visible must also be taken using the application provided.

MATERIALS DONATIONS

Materials are defined as unfinished goods:

- Wool
- Knitting Needles
- Crochet Hooks
- Squares
- Scarves

In order for 67 Blankets for Nelson Mandela Day to be able to track the donations of materials, it is essential that records are kept in the following manner:

1. The Ambassador responsible for the collection of the materials donations at the designated drop-off points must ensure that each donation is accompanied by a “Materials Donation Form” (See Annexure B). The form is saved on Facebook as a File.
2. The details as noted on the Materials Handover Form must be captured into the database using the AdvanceMobility application which has been developed for this purpose.

BENEFICIARY GUIDELINES

Ambassadors and KnitWits are encouraged to submit proposals for handover of blankets and/or yarn to beneficiaries of their choice. These proposals must be submitted on form “Beneficiary Request” (Annexure C).

This process will enable us to ensure that the distribution of blankets and yarn is done on a fair and equitable basis. We must ensure that the blankets reach those communities and beneficiaries where the need is the greatest. The yarn must go to communities who will make sure the blankets are returned to us for distribution.

Information received will be stored in our database.

The distribution of the blankets and/or material can only be done once you have received written permission from Carolyn Steyn, or her duly designated and authorised representatives.

DISTRIBUTION OF BLANKETS

Records must be kept of all blankets handed out in the name of 67 Blankets for Nelson Mandela Day.

The details of blankets distributed to beneficiaries must be captured into the database using the AdvanceMobility application which has been developed for this purpose.

DISTRIBUTION OF MATERIALS

Unfinished material that is donated to 67 Blankets for Nelson Mandela Day is intended to be used to produce more handmade blankets. With this in mind it is important that our Ambassadors keep track of the materials they distribute and ensure that it comes back in blanket form.

Details of all materials handed out must be captured into the database using the AdvanceMobility application which has been developed for this purpose.

The Ambassadors will be responsible for ensuring that materials distributed are returned to us as finished blankets by a date to be agreed between the Ambassador and the Recipient.

EVENT PLANNING

We are here to support the events that Ambassadors and KnitWits schedule. Where deemed appropriate, we will invite press to attend the function and, hopefully, media coverage will follow as a result of this. This incredible project has caught the imagination of the press and we do get a lot of coverage due to its human interest aspect.

To ensure that we have all the necessary information to facilitate this, kindly complete the form “Event Planning” (Annexure D) and submit to BUZ timeously. The form is saved as a File on the Facebook page. No event is too small! Let BUZ know – they will take it from there and contact the relevant media.

Not all events will attract the attention of the press. In these instances we urge you to share your event photographs with us. Help us to create awareness. This can be done in various ways:

- Facebook – 67 Blankets for Nelson Mandela Day (South Africa)
- Twitter - @67blankets
- SMS – to the mobile numbers above
- E-mail – file size to be less than 1mb / 300 dpi please – these may be used for media stories
- Remember to tag the pictures or email the names to us of the pictures you send

When planning an event, please consider the following:

- Location – ensure that the venue is easily accessible to your intended invitees. Ensure also that the location can logistically accommodate your event. Bear in mind things such as:
 - Size of venue
 - Parking at venue
 - Accessibility for disabled persons
- Time – ensure you pick a date and time that will suit the majority of people in your target audience. For example, holding an event on a work day during working hours, will exclude the people who work normal business hours. As we are trying to attract younger KnitWits please be mindful of this
- Team – it is important that a team is selected to assist with event registration; collecting of blankets and donations, entertainment etc. The size of the event and type of event will determine how many people you will need to assist you.
- Entrance requirements – ensure that you communicate clearly with your invitees regarding entrance fees (blankets and/or wool donations etc).
- Catering - Make sure your invitees understand whether refreshments will be served free of charge, or if they will be expected to pick up their own tabs.
- Name badges – always a useful tool to assist people during the event.

MARKETING COLLATERAL

Various forms of marketing materials will be available for Ambassadors to order. The offering may change from time to time. These items currently include:

DATABASE MAINTENANCE

67 Blankets for Nelson Mandela Day is embarking on a project to implement a state-of-the-art Customer Relationship Management database.

In order to maintain the integrity of the database and to ensure conformity when entering data, Ambassadors are urged to apply the following conventions when using the AdvanceMobility App to capture any data.
